GREATER NEW YORK.

New York and Brooklyn
 Look to Be Solid for Consolidation.

RETURNS STILL COMING IN.

430 City Election Districts Give 30,722 for and 18,895
 Against It.

VOTE OF THE CITY OF BROOKLYN.

With a Few Missing Districts It Stands 54,695 For and 52,927 Against.

Returns for the vote in this city and Brooklyn on the "Greater New York" scheme indicate that a majority of the votes have been cast in favor of consolidation.

One city government of New York and Brooklyn, the whole of Richmond and Kings counties, with portions of Westchester and Queens.
 The whole area covered by the "Greater New York" will comprise more than 217 square miles.
 According to the last census the population of the cities, counties and towns which it is proposed to combine as the Greater New York is only a few thousands short of 2,000,000.
 The cities include New York, Brooklyn and Long Island City; then Richmond County and the towns of Westchester, Flushing, Newtown and Jamaica, and there is also covered under the provisions of the bill those portions of the towns of Eastchester and Pelham which lie southerly of a straight line drawn from the point where the northern line of the city of New York meets the center line of the Bronx River to the middle of the channel between Glen Island and Hunter's Island in Long Island Sound, together with that part of the town of Hempstead which is westerly of a straight line drawn from the southeasterly point of the town of Flushing, through the middle of the channel between Rockaway Beach and Shelter Island to the Atlantic Ocean.
 The last enumeration would make the area and population of those places as follows:

Place	Area in square miles	Population
New York City	26.90	1,175,729
Brooklyn	23.99	967,953
Flushing	12.79	15,000
Gravesend	10.96	8,119
New Utrecht	15.40	4,812
Richmond County	87.19	52,688
Westchester	10.96	16,000
Part of the town of Pelham	2.55	2,841
Part of the town of Flushing	1.14	1,754
Part of the town of Hempstead	17.96	14,441
Jamaica	21.32	17,449
Long Island City	1.14	17,449
Newtown	1.14	17,449
Jamaica Bay	1.14	17,449
Total	217.77	2,943,793

In the bill which relates to the subject, which was passed by the last Legislature, provision was only made for an expression of opinion on the part of the people as to the advisability of consolidation, and this is what the vote of yesterday means. The people are undoubtedly in favor of it.
 No plan has yet been outlined as to the details of the consolidation, or the selection of the various questions which must arise as to the apportionment of

According to returns received at Police Headquarters and tabulated this morning, it is evident that the Rapid Transit question has been decided by the voters in favor of the city building an underground railroad under the provisions of the following act:

Section 12. The said Board of Rapid Transit Railroad Commissioners shall cause the question whether such railway or railways shall be constructed by the public or others within the city within which such railway or railways are to be constructed, and that it shall be the duty of the said Board, after completion of the local plans and specifications required by the act hereby amended, at least thirty days prior to the next general election, to file with the public officers of each county in which such city is located, who may be charged with the duty of printing the ballots

A count made this morning of the vote cast for and against the proposed amendments to the Constitution indicates that all the propositions are carried in this city.

(From Yesterday's Evening World Election Extra.)

MR. MORTON CLIMBS A HILL.

The canvass demonstrates that about 106,000 people voted for a revised Constitution and 91,000 against.
 The pluralities were from 10,000 to 20,000
 in this city, but varied greatly for each of the amendments, the vote upon reapportionment being exceedingly close.
 The question of apportionment, so far as figures at 11 o'clock to-day, when 410 districts had been heard from, shows a small margin in favor of the measure, the vote being, in those districts, 20,330
 for, and 19,927 against.

By the adoption of the constitutional amendments, the Legislature has now
 the power to abolish the office of Coroner; bills must be printed three days before passage; more than $5,000 damages
 may now be obtained in case of death;
 the Speaker of the Assembly has power to fill vacancy as Governor after Lieutenant Governor's death; and general and separate bills may be introduced in the Senate may act as Lieutenant Governor;
 officers of private charitable institutions do not need to be licensed; and the purpose of voting; the Onondaga jail springs may be sold; machines to register votes may be used instead of the ballot; the Code Commission is no more;
 "riders" are not permitted on appropriation bills; a man must be a citizen for ninety days before he can vote; the Legislature meets on the first Tuesday in January; rail, telegraph and telephone companies must not give preference to one line over another;
 paupers to be housed in the city; election boards must be bipartisan; public money cannot be used to aid sectarian schools;
 the Superior Court is consolidated with the Supreme Court; timber must be sold on the land and not in the forest preservation; the State registry of voters must be maintained; the State and municipal elections may be held on the same day; the Legislature must not pass mandatory laws compelling the payment of public money to private institutions;
 the State and municipal elections may be held on the same day; the State and county debts; Civil Service reform in the State; the State and municipal elections may be held on the same day;
 the Legislature may improve the canal if it can do so without borrowing money for the purpose.
 The new Constitution goes into effect
 Jan. 1 next.

"THE PULL THAT ONCE." ETC.

(From Yesterday's Evening World Election Extra.)

The "pull" that came from Tammany Hall
 Its bold defiance held
 Is now no good at all, at all.
 As you see by this "Evening World."
 So late the hopes of Hugh Grant.
 So Croker's reign is over;
 The Bowdler now must hunt a haunt
 Upon some other shore.
 No more to men who are Higher Up
 They do such things.
 The Tiger's now a pelted pup.
 Its tail hangs very low.
 Reform of late very seldom wags.
 But when it does the snake
 And humps itself when something breaks
 And it gets there good and strong!

IN TAMMANY.

(From Yesterday's Evening World Election Extra.)

Oh, Tammany! Poor Tammany!
 They do such things.
 And they swear such things!
 Oh, Tammany! Poor Tammany!
 Will never get there any more.

Don Donegan, Tammany's Wikininkie, expressed general feeling in Tammany Hall to-day when he remarked to some of the office-holders at the City Hall: "Well, I guess we have got to work now and earn our living."
 Donegan and all the other Tammany office-holders believe that the Republican Legislature will lose no time in giving Col. Strong the power to remove all the Tammany heads of departments who are appointed to office. That would mean a sweeping-out of every city office excepting the Finance Department, and as a great majority of the Tammany office-holders have no business or occupation other than politics, the outlook for earning a livelihood is not bright to them. Some, of course, are independently wealthy, and loss of office would not affect them pecuniarily.

Mayor Gilroy has looked out for the future by buying an interest in a printing establishment. He is, however, a very rich man.
 Should a Mayor's power of removal bill become a law, here are some who will probably lose their official heads:
 "Wick" Daly, Commissioner of Public Works, salary $10,000.
 Charles J. J. O'Donoghue, salary
 $12,000.
 Police Commissioners Martin and Sheehan, salary $10,000.
 Harry H. Porter, Edward C. Sheehy and Charles E. Simmonds, Commissioners of Charities and Correction, salary $10,000.
 Fire Commissioners John J. Scannell, Andrew Kitchin and J. Howard Johnson, salary $5,000.
 Charles G. Wilson, President of the Health
 Board, salary $2,000.
 (From Yesterday's Evening World Election Extra.)

The State of Nebraska sailed from Glasgow Oct. 25, with seventy-four passengers and ninety-five second-class passengers. Variable winds and rough weather were experienced during the trip. Nov. 2 a large iceberg and small fields of ice were passed.

At 5.30 o'clock yesterday morning a vessel showing signals of distress was sighted. When within hailing distance Capt. Brown made out that it was the Charles R. Morrison, a three-masted schooner, loaded with lumber.

The crew of the Morrison, who were taken off, were:
 W. M. Howes, master; Daniel H.
 Fisher, mate; Walter Newton, steward;
 J. Wilkins, seaman; T. Hansen, seaman;
 A. Lipper, seaman; John F. Crowley, seaman.

There being no chance to save the schooner, she was abandoned, with her cargo.

The Charles R. Morrison was built in 1890, at Portsmouth, N. H., and was owned by E. H. Atwood & Co. Her length was 136 feet, breadth, 25.5, depth, 15.7. She registered 527 tons.

THE VOTES.

(From Yesterday's Evening World Election Extra.)

After "Poe's Bell."

Votes! Votes! Votes!
 How thick and fast they fell
 Above the Bronx,
 Below the Bronx,
 Upon the conks
 Of Hill and Grant as well.
 Up the State they scurried:
 Around the town they hurried.
 The Tammany ticket from A to Izard
 Was caught in the terrible ballot blis-sard.

That filled the streets and moats;
 That put Hugh J. in the consummity
 And rose in a wreath.
 With Hill buried beneath
 A hundred thousand votes!
 Votes! Votes! Votes!
 Yes, a hundred thousand votes!

EXTRA.

2 O'CLOCK.

YESTERDAY'S OUTRAGE.

Men Arrested for Alleged Illegal Registration Still In the Tombs.

SIXTY-SIX OF THEM ALL TOLD.

Of These It Is Claimed that All
 but Five or Six Are Innocent.

SMALL CHANCE FOR REDRESS.

And They May Languish in Cells
 for Days Awaiting Trial.

The story was told exclusively in "The Evening World" last night of how fifty men were locked up in the Tombs yesterday because they simply tried to do their duty as citizens and were made the victims of incompetent, stupid or drunken election inspectors and of stupid policemen.

The men guilty of no crime whatever were locked up in cells in the Tombs
 all night.

They were there this morning, and there is little chance that many of them will get out to-day.

There are in all sixty-six men charged with illegal registration in the prison.
 One five or six are guilty.

The others are the victims of incompetent or grossly negligent registration officials and policemen.

An "Evening World" reporter went to the Tombs this morning and interviewed
 some of the prisoners.

In one cell was Charles Bein, who lives with his wife and little child at 23 West 17th street, and has worked there since Aug. 28, and has worked for John Ruddy, a butter dealer, of 23
 Seventh avenue, for fifteen years.

Yesterday Mr. Bein went to vote. He was arrested, but he was promptly taken to the Tombs. No explanation was given him.
 He was not allowed to give his story or tell who he was.

His wife is sick. His baby is sick. His wife doesn't know where he is, as he could not find any way of communicating with her.

Mr. Whalen, of 400 West
 Thirty-second street, is in the same cell with Bein. He registered on the last election, but he was taken to the Tombs between Ninth and Tenth avenues.

"I gave my address properly," he said to the reporter, "but I was taken to the Tombs. I put me down as living at
 No. 40, at instead of No. 400. Daniel Boylan, at 40 West Thirty-second street,
 will testify that they were all drunk
 and I registered."

"Now am I locked up because they were too drunk to attend to their business. I was going to vote the reform ticket."

James Lynch is in an adjoining cell.
 He lives at 62 Greenwich street. He is registered.

He was put in some of the books in this cell. He had his book down as living at 62 Greenwich street for a year. Because some of the inspectors at the registration bureau at 65 Hudson street got his address wrong he is in jail.

He was indicted, arrested, and has spent the night in the Tombs.

These are only a few—the first that the reporter could see—but there are many others who have been taken to the Tombs and are waiting for trial.

Assistant District Attorney Unger said this morning that he had the District Attorney's office would try to get the men tried as soon as possible to-day. It could be done. In the mean time, they must stay in prison.

Judge Martineau said in his chambers that he would not allow anything all day, to liberate some of the citizens who had been arrested for trying to vote as they had a perfect right to do.

Assistant District Attorney Weeks
 offered to go on their bonds himself if the Judge would allow him, but Judge Martineau said that he did not wish to establish the precedent of a District Attorney going bail in the General Sessions Court.
 The probability is that these men, who have done no wrong, will have to stay in their cells for some days, unless they can furnish bail.

They have suffered the indignity of indictment, arrest and imprisonment.
 They have apparently no redress, and election inspectors by whose mistakes
 they were discharged are irresponsible men, and as a rule are inept.

The greatest election outrage ever perpetrated in this city was done yesterday when these men were jailed.

COCK ROBIN UP TO DATE.

(From Yesterday's Evening World Election Extra.)

Who killed David B. Hill?
 'Twas I, said Honest Democrat;
 I thought I'd show where I was at,
 So my ballot I threw
 'Gainst the ring and that crew,
 And I think it helped kill D. B. Hill.
 Who helped to plant Hugh J. Grant?
 'Twas I, said Decent Citizen;
 And I am glad that it was I
 A glorious outrage
 Of real reform
 That we did plant Hugh J. Grant.

PROPOSED BOUNDARIES OF THE GREATER NEW YORK.

A tabulation of the returns at Police Headquarters this morning shows that the vote in this city on the consolidation issue is, in round figures, 118,000 for and 82,000 against.

Nearly two hundred election districts of the city, which have been officially counted, show a vote of 52,792 for and 10,781 against consolidation.

It is evident from the returns that a large proportion of voters neglected to cast their ballots upon this question, but taking these figures as a basis, it is estimated that the majority in New York City in favor of consolidation will reach at least 30,000.

In Brooklyn the latest returns show a total vote of 54,695 for and 52,927 against the proposition, which makes it evident that the people of the two cities have given approval to the plan of consolidating the two municipalities by a good majority.

The vote of Brooklyn, with a few districts still missing, is:
